

Malabar at Watford, June 2014

03/10/2014

Seeing Malabar is quite an extraordinary experience. Some friends invited me to come along to an outdoor show commissioned by Watford city council back in June this year. We were able to be backstage with crew and performers so it was pretty exciting to get such a close up view of what was going on. Though the video I shot wasn't great - a lot of movement, crowds and low light makes for very difficult shooting, but I still edited some up as it gives a glimpse into what it's like to go to one of their shows. Highly recommended. [Slideshow photo gallery to be added.]
