

We do Kool not Kute

10/09/2013

I went along to the opening of a photography show curated by Jamie Brennan, "We do Kool Not Kute" and shot some video and stills. Jamie had asked me to have a go at making a video of the night. The show was great, and I really enjoyed making the media. This is the clip, there's also a small gallery of stills to check out. As usual, I shot in 1080p AVCHD and high res jpg. Music here is by Sven Weissman.
